Shop windows are full of red hearts and other decorations.

Help, help, help me to see
To find the one who is right for me
Someone who possess love in a sacred way
To have to hold everyday
Just to feel a warm and loving touch
Is that asking too much
To have you on a cold bitter night
Where we can snuggle together by the firelight
I'll only ask this one time and then i'll end this simple rhyme
Are you ready to have someone
Are you the one

Happy Valentine's day!
